ANNUAL SURVEY OF INDUSTRIES—1967

Sample Sector—Summary Results

*This report entitled Tables with notes on ASI-1967 : Sample Sector : Summary Results, was prepared by the Indian Statistical Institute, Calcutta. The views contained in the Report are not necessarily those of the Government of India.**

INTRODUCTORY NOTES

1. INTRODUCTION

1. This volume contains estimates at the all-India, state, each industry and state-industry levels in respect of the data collected in the sample sector of the Annual Survey of Industries for 1967 (ASI-67). Results for 16 major items are presented in this volume.

2. The planning of the survey was done jointly by the Central Statistical Organisation (CSO) and the Indian Statistical Institute (ISI). Likewise, technical direction of field collection of data was given by the ISI in close consultation with the Industrial Statistics Wing of the CSO.

3. The Survey was conducted under the Collection of Statistics Act, 1953 (32 of 1953) and Collection of Statistics Rules, 1959, through the Directorate of National Sample Survey, who were responsible for actual collection of the data, the Chief Director of National Sample Survey being the Statistics Authority appointed under the said act for the purpose of collection of these statistics.

4. The survey commenced in June 1968 with notices issued to the factories under the said Act. Returns received generally upto the end of August 1969 were taken into consideration in the preparation of the report. To reduce bias due to substitution of few more schedules received thereafter were also considered. Due adjustment was made for all non-response cases.

2. SCOPE AND COVERAGE

5. The results pertaining to the sample sector for ASI-1967 presented herewith are based on the summary block of the schedule. The estimates have been provided for all-India—all industries, each industry at all-India level, all industries at state level and each industry at state level for 16 major items. The sample size at state by industry level is generally small and as such the results are apt to be subject to large margin of error. In order to get an integrated picture of industrial activity it is desirable to pool up the results of the census sector with the corresponding sample sector results. With that end in view the results for each industry at state level have been presented here.

6. Data were collected as per the accounting years of the factories surveyed and the specific accounting year for this purpose was that ending on any day between April 1, 1967 and March 31, 1968. For the first time in this round, data for sugar factories were collected as per the accounting year of the factories in accordance with the Government of India notification.

7. The ASI-67 survey was extended to the whole of the Indian Union. All the sample sector units in the Andaman & Nicobar Islands, Chandigarh, Goa, Daman & Diu, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu & Kashmir, Pondicherry and Tripura were completely enumerated. There was no sample unit in Manipur.

8. The survey comprised all factories registered under sections 2m(i) and 2m(ii) of the Factories Act, 1948. These sections refer respectively to factories employing ten or more workers, if using power and to those employing twenty or more workers, if not using power, on any day in the previous year. The sample sector generally comprised all factories which employed on an average in 1966 less than 50 workers, if using power and less than 100 workers, if not using power and which also occurred in the list of factories for 1966 as maintained in the office of the Chief Inspector of Factories (C.I.F.) and as collected by the NSS. It also included factories reported as closed. It was thus virtually co-terminus with all section 2m factories as per C.I.F. list of factories for 1966, except in so far as these were either selected for coverage in the *Preliminary results for India as a whole, for each state, taking all industries together and for each industry at all-India level, were furnished to the Government of India in February 1970. The Draft Report (No. D214) was first submitted by The Indian Statistical Institute, Calcutta, to the Government of India in May, 1970. It was revised subsequently and resubmitted in May, 1971.

census sector or deleted. In fact, ASI-1967 census sector comprised some ASI-65 and ASI-66 census factories on repetitive basis, even though their employment strength as per C.I.F. list for 1966 was below the prescribed level.

9. Factories deleted from the sample frame were defence installations, restaurants and cafe (industry No. 842), those engaged in storage and distribution of oil, technical training institutions not producing anything for sale or exchange as well as electricity (generating and/or distributing) factories (industry No. 511).

10. Sample factories belonging to the excluded categories, gone out of existence, closed or deregistered as well as those covered in the same return with other census or sample factories were treated as blank, that is, they were treated as samples surveyed but their contributions were taken to be nil for the purpose of estimation. Sample factories submitting returns jointly with a census factory were treated in the above manner to facilitate pooling of census and sample results.

11. Also, in accordance with Government decision, all factories newly registered in 1967 in the Union territories other than Delhi, which did not fall in the census sector, were covered in the sample sector on a complete enumeration basis. Results for factories surveyed under this scheme have been furnished separately and have not been taken into consideration in preparing tables 1,2 and 3.

12. A copy of the schedule of investigation canvassed in the survey is given in Appendix II.

3. CONCEPTS AND DEFINITIONS

13. An idea is given below of the important concepts used in the survey.

- (a) Fixed capital—Depreciated book values of fixed assets of the factory as on the closing day of the accounting year were collected. The fixed assets were goods with a normal economic life of more than one year and used by the factory for manufacturing purposes. These included the fixed assets of the head office allocable to the factory. Assets solely used for post-manufacture distribution as well as intangible assets were, however, excluded.
- (b) Working capital—It comprised the stocks as at the end of the year, of materials, stores, fuels, semi-finished goods and finished goods, cash in hand and at bank as well as net balance of amounts receivable over amounts payable. It excluded fixed deposits as well as long-term loans and investments.
- (c) Invested capital—It was the total of fixed capital and physical working capital comprising materials, stores, fuels, semi-finished goods and finished products and by-products as on the closing date.
- (d) Depreciation—It was taken as provided for the reference year by the factory or estimated on the basis of the cost of installation and working life of the fixed assets calculated in terms of number of years.
- (e) Workers—The term 'worker' was used in the same sense as in the Factories Act, 1948 and excluded persons holding position of supervision and management or employed in confidential position. It included apprentices as well as persons employed through contractors.
- (f) Employees—It is the total of workers and employees other than workers. The terms related to all persons engaged by the factory in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacturing process and included all administrative, technical and clerical staff as also labour engaged in the production of capital items for factory's own use, but excluded persons engaged in retail sales or delivery of goods. It included the proprietors and partners as well as unpaid members of their families who did some work in or for the factory. Persons in the head office engaged in connection with the manufacturing activity of the factory were also included.

The average number of all workers/employees was calculated by adding for each category, persons attending and on leave with pay (including those on strike but excluding those on unlimited leave, leave without pay or pension) over each shift of a working day and dividing the result by the number of working days.

- (g) Emoluments—Besides salaries and wages paid during the year to persons in employment, this term included all bonuses, regular or otherwise, as well as overtime payment made in the reference year. It included the value of payments in kind. Factory expenses in the shape of employer's contribution to provident fund, pension, gratuity or similar other charges were, however, not included.
- (h) Input—This comprised all manufacturing costs of the factory or the head office allocable to the factory on account of fuels and materials consumed, including current expenses on industrial or non-industrial (e.g. audit fee account, bank and telephone charges) services as well as sundry indirect taxes such as local rate and factory licence paid by the factory. It included materials used in the repair and maintenance of fixed capital and for manufacture of capital items for factory's own use. Purchase value of goods sold in the same condition as purchased was also included. But intermediate products, that is, factory products further consumed in manufacture, and materials used on capital account were excluded. Director's fee and managing agent's remuneration and office allowance and materials supplied by customers for processing were also excluded.

- (i) Net balance of semi-finished goods—It was the excess of value of goods in process as at the end of the accounting year over that as at the beginning, positive or negative.
- (j) Output—This consisted of the ex-factory value of all finished goods produced together with the value of industrial services rendered by the factory during the reference year which was exclusive of the value of materials supplied by customers for processing. It included the net balance of semi-finished goods as at the end of the year, the value of capital item produced for factory's own use and goods sold in the same condition as purchased. Intermediate products i.e. those produced and further consumed in manufacture within the factory were excluded but final products for own use as goods in the factory were included.
- (k) Value added—This value was arrived at by deducting the value of input from the value of output. It was net of depreciation for the reference year.

14. In the appended tables 'industry' refers to the Labour Bureau classification of industries at the three-digit level. This information is available in the list of factories maintained by the office of the Chief Inspector of Factories (C.I.F.)—Appendix I furnishes this classification alongside the classification of Indian Industries (used in providing the census sector aggregates of ASI) also at the three-digit level.

4. NON-RESPONSE

15. There were 38,870 factories in the sample universe of which 6187 factories or about 16% were taken as sample. Due adjustment in value was made through substitution at the tabulation stage for all non-response cases which numbered 463 or about 7% of the sample size.

5. PARTICULARS OF TABLES

16. The zero (0) series tables show the distribution of factories in the sample universe as well as in the sample by industry at all-India, at state all industries combined, and at state each industry level by sub-sample. Tables 1, 2, 3 and 4 respectively provide estimates by sub-sample at all-India (all industries combined), state (all industries combined), all-India (each industry) and state (each industry) level. Table 4 has been furnished in two parts, for sampled strata and the complete enumeration strata. For the latter, only combined aggregates have been given, after having taken into account non-response cases, if any.

17. In tables 1, 2, 3 and 4, item 17 'no. of samples surveyed' refers to the surveyed factories i.e., the sample size minus non-response factories. In other words, it includes factories for which schedules have been completed, as well as those treated as blank. For non-response factories for which values have been substituted, this item has been marked with a dash (—).

18. In view of Section 7 of the Collection of Statistics Act, 1953, and as desired by the Central Statistical Organisation, wherever in the completely enumerated strata of table 4, the number of factories is less than three in the sample universe, the aggregates have not been furnished in the report but forwarded to the Industrial Statistics Wing of the Central Statistical Organisation for whatever use they may be put to without infringement of the secrecy provision. However, those factories have been taken into consideration in building up tables 1, 2 and 3. For identical reasons aggregates of the strata having less than 3 units in the sample universe in scheme 5 have not been presented in this report.

19. Estimates left blank or shown as '—' (nil) indicate that the surveyed factory or substituted factory (in case of non-response) had no contribution to report on the characteristic. Estimates marked '0' (zero) mean that the contribution was less than 1 (one) in terms of the units prescribed.

6. SAMPLING DESIGN

20. The sampling design in the sample sector was a stratified unistage one, the strata being the state  $\times$  industry cells and the sampling unit being a factory. The sampling frame in any stratum consisted of all factories in that state  $\times$  industry cell except for factories belonging to the census sector and those left out of the scope of the survey to the extent reported.

21. Sample sizes for different strata were decided upon with a view to providing usable estimates for (i) each industry at all-India level, (ii) each state for all industries together and (iii) two major industries in each state (i.e. first two industries when arranged in order of their industrial employments in that state). These major industries are given below in brackets against the concerned states :

Andhra (205, 220); Assam (209, 250); Bihar (205, 339); Gujarat (209, 231); Kerala (209, 250); Madhya Pradesh (205, 220); Maharashtra (231, 350); Mysore (010, 231); Orissa (205, 250); Punjab (231, 360); Rajasthan (010, 339); Tamil Nadu (205, 209); Uttar Pradesh (207, 360); West Bengal (205, 350); Delhi (350, 360) and Haryana (350, 360).

22. The actual allocation procedure was carried out in the following stages; a sample size of 6000 factories was first allocated to the different industries in proportion to their total all-India employment. In the case of some industries the allocations were considered more than adequate and were therefore reduced to provide larger allocations to some major industries within states. Further, when the number of factories in an industry in a state was very small (say, 3, 4 or 5 etc.) or when the allocation was a little less than the number of factories in a stratum, all the factories were included in the sample. This resulted in a total sample size of 6187 factories.

23. The sample in any stratum was drawn in the form of two interpenetrating sub-samples, size of each sub-sample being half of the allocation to that stratum. The two sub-samples were selected in circular systematic manner and without replacement in such a way that there were no common units between them.

7. ESTIMATION PROCEDURE

24. Notation :  $Y_{ijkl}$  = Value of characteristic considered for the  $L$ th factory in the  $i$ th sub-sample  $j$ th state and  $k$ th industry.

$n_{ijk}$  = Number of factories surveyed including zero cases (i.e. blank or treated as blank) in the  $i$ th sub-sample,  $j$ th state and  $k$ th industry

$N_{jk}$  = total number of factories in the  $j$ th state and  $k$ th industry as in the sample universe;

$$m_{ijk} = \frac{N_{jk}}{n_{ijk}} ;$$

$T'_{ijk}$  = aggregate value of the characteristic for all sample factories including substituted cases for non-response in the  $i$ th sub-sample in the completely enumerated strata.

For completely enumerated strata in the  $i$ th sub-sample

$$T'_i = \sum_j T'_{ij} \text{ or } \sum_k T'_{ik}$$

$$\text{where } T'_{ij} = 2 \times \sum_k T'_{ijk}$$

$$T'_{ik} = 2 \times \sum_j T'_{ijk}$$ and also at state x industry level combined estimate, as furnished in table 4 is

$$T'_{jk} = \sum_j T'_{ijk}$$

For sampled strata in the  $i$ th sub-sample

$$T''_i = \sum_j T''_{ij} \text{ or } \sum_k T''_{ik}$$

$$\text{where } T''_{ij} = \sum_k m_{ijk} \sum_{l=1}^{n_{ijk}} Y_{ijkl}$$

$$\text{and } T''_{ik} = \sum_j m_{ijk} \sum_{l=1}^{n_{ijk}} Y_{ijkl}$$

$$\text{and state x industry estimate } T''_{jk} = m_{ijk} \sum_{l=1}^{n_{ijk}} Y_{ijkl}$$

$$\text{and state x industry combined estimate } T''_{jk} = \frac{1}{2} \sum_{i=1}^2 T''_{ijk}$$

As given in tables:

All India all industries estimate for ith sub-sample :

$$T_i = T'_i + T''_i$$

$$\text{and combined estimates } T = \sum_i \frac{T_i}{2}$$

state all industries estimate for ith sub-sample

$$T_{ij} = T'_{ij} + T''_{ij}$$

$$\text{and combined estimate } T_j = \sum_i \frac{T_{ij}}{2}$$

all India each industry estimate for i th sub-sample

$$T_{ik} = T'_{ik} + T''_{ik}$$

$$\text{and combined estimates } T_k = \frac{\sum_i T_{ik}}{2}$$

8. SUMMARY OF FINDINGS :

25. Sample sector estimates for input, output and value added (gross of depreciation) for 1961 to 1967 are given below in Table (A) for facility of quick comparison, despite slight changes in conceptual coverage over the years. It is found from the figures that at least in the sample sector value added at Rs. 239 crores in ASI-67 remained more or less same as that of the preceding year. Although value of output at current prices has increased in 1967 by 3.5% over 1966, yet the value added could not increase due to relatively high rise of 4.3% in the price of primary products and industrial raw materials in 1967 over 1966.

* Figures reduced by contribution from electricity factories which have been eliminated from sample sector with effect from ASI-1962.

** To ensure comparability value added figures have been shown as gross of depreciation.

@Unlike previous years, data collected were based on accounting year of the factory.

26. For comparative study, six key items of industrial activity, culled from Table 2 of the report are presented in Table B below in respect of all the states having at least Rs. 100 crores of output in the sample sector of ASI-67. Together they account for about three-fourths each of sample sector totals of input, output and value added. Arranged in the descending order of their output, Maharashtra tops the list in respect of all the characteristics except input while Andhra comes last in all items except employment and input.
